The updated list of Data Processors and persons authorised to process data is kept at the registered office of the Data Controller.

2. Purpose of the Processing

The Data Controller processes the personal and identification data that you voluntarily provide (verbally, through business cards, requests for information, e-mails, delivery of documents, through the Data Controller's website, etc.), including but not limited to: name, surname, place and date of birth, address of residence and domicile, place of work, company name, VAT number, tax code, landline and/or mobile telephone number, fax number, e-mail address, PEC address, bank details, etc.

The Data Controller will process the aforementioned data in accordance with the GDPR, assuming that they refer to you or to third parties who have expressly authorised you to provide them on the basis of a suitable legal basis legitimising the processing of the data in question. With respect to these hypotheses, you act as autonomous data controller, assuming all the obligations and responsibilities laid down by law. In this regard, you grant the widest possible indemnity in respect of any dispute, claim, request for compensation for damage caused by processing, etc., that may be received by the Controller from third parties whose personal data have been processed at your request and/or in execution of a contract.

3. Purpose and legal basis of processing, nature of provision and refusal

Your personal data will be processed

A) without your express consent for the following purposes:

1. concluding contracts concerning the Controller's products; fulfilling pre-contractual and contractual obligations;
2. fulfilment of legal, regulatory and fiscal obligations arising from existing relations with you or required by an order of the Authority;
3. archiving;
4. management of disputes, controversies and claims, in and/or out of court or whenever the jurisdictional Authorities exercise their jurisdictional functions.

B) Only with your specific consent for the following purposes:

1. direct marketing to respond to your needs and to provide you with commercial and promotional offers also in line with your preferences; Barazzoni may process your contact data for marketing and advertising communication purposes, aimed at informing you about promotional offers and/or sales of Barazzoni products, carried out through automated contact methods (e-mail, mms, sms and other mass messaging tools, etc.), ordinary mail, telephone calls with operator, if you give us your specific consent.

For the purposes indicated in paragraph A) no. 1 of this Article 3 of this information notice, the legal basis of the processing, which attests to its lawfulness, is that provided for in Article 6(1)(b) of the GDPR, i.e. "the processing is necessary for the performance of a contract to which the data subject is party or for the performance of pre-contractual measures taken at the data subject's request".

The processing carried out for the purposes set out in paragraph A) nos. 2 and 3 of this Article 3 is based on legal obligations to which the Data Controller is subject (Art. 6(1)(c) of the GDPR).

Finally, for the purposes stated in number 4 of paragraph A) of this Article 3, the processing is necessary for the pursuit of the legitimate interest of the Controller to protect its rights arising from the contract (Art. 6(1)(f) of the GDPR).

On the other hand, the processing of your personal data for the purposes of direct marketing referred to in paragraph B), number 1, of this Article 3 may only take place on the basis of your specific and separate consent (Art. 6(1)(a) and Art. 7 of the GDPR) given in writing at the foot of this notice.

We would also like to point out that if you are already a customer, we may send you commercial communications relating to the Controller's products similar to those you have already used, unless you disagree.

The provision of the aforementioned data for the purposes set out in numbers 1, 2, 3 and 4 of paragraph A) of this Article 3 is mandatory for the fulfilment of contractual and/or legal obligations. Failure to provide, partial or inexact provision of the data and/or express refusal to process them will make it impossible for the Controller to enter into contractual relations or fulfil contractual obligations undertaken or a legal obligation to which the Controller is subject or requests by the competent Authorities.

On the other hand, the provision of data subject to your specific consent as set forth in Article 3 paragraph B) of this information notice is optional in order to receive periodic communications and publications of a commercial and promotional nature, without this preventing the performance of the contractual relationship. The provision of data for the latter purpose is therefore optional, with the consequence that you may decide not to provide your consent, or to revoke it at any time, with the specification that failure to provide it will not have any consequences on the contractual relationship.

The personal data of minors under 16 years of age will not be processed by the Data Controller, except with the prior consent of the holder of parental responsibility.

4. Place and methods of processing, storage times

Data processing takes place at the aforementioned premises of the Data Controller and at identified third parties.

The collection and processing of your personal data by the Controller is carried out in compliance with the principles of lawfulness, correctness and transparency and in such a way as to guarantee adequate security, including protection, by means of appropriate technical and organisational measures, from unauthorised or unlawful processing and from accidental loss, destruction or damage.

The data collected will be processed by means of electronic or in any case automated, computerised and telematic instruments, or by means of paper instruments, with logic strictly related to the purposes for which the personal data were collected and, in any case, in such a way as to guarantee their security.

Barazzoni will keep your personal data only for the time necessary to achieve the purposes for which they were collected or for any other legitimate related purpose, without prejudice to the need to keep the data to meet the obligations provided for by the regulations in force even after the cessation of the processing operations and in any case no longer than 10 years from the termination of the contractual relationship or even beyond that period, until the time allowed by Italian law to protect the rights and interests of the Owner.

The Controller limits access to your personal data only to those who need to use them for relevant purposes.

Your personal data that is no longer required, or for which there is no longer a legal basis for its storage, is irreversibly anonymised (and thus can be stored) or securely destroyed, unless it is required to be stored for other, different purposes as expressly provided for by law.

Further information on the period of retention of personal data and the criteria used to determine this period may be requested by writing to the e-mail address given above.

- c) Judicial or supervisory authorities, administrations, public bodies and organisations, in the exercise of their functions, when required by law.

7. Automated decision-making process

8. Rights of the data subject

We inform you that, in accordance with the provisions of the GDPR, you as the data subject may exercise the following rights:
